ESSEX.

WHEREAS application hath been made to His Majesty by John Forth, and other the late Farmers of his Majesties Revenue in this Kingdom, setting forth, That there are still due and owing to them several great Arrears and other sums of money for several branches of the said Revenue to them demised, and therefore humbly praying, that the Commissions formerly Granted by His Majesty at their desire to John Stone, Samuel Richardson, Richard Bucknall, Dr. Robert Wood, and Thomas Breedon, for manageing the said Farm, and collecting the several sums of money due to the said late Farmers by virtue thereof, might be superseded: And that a new Commission might be granted to John Stone, Thomas Breedon, and Daniel Burgess Esqrs: whereby they or any two of them might be authorized in the behalf of the said late Farmers, to Collect and gather in all such Arrears and other sums of money, as remain yet due to the said late Farmers on account of their said Farm.

And whereas a Commission is since Issued under the Great Seal of this Kingdom, bearing date the Eighth day of this instant May: Whereby the said John Stone, Thomas Breedon, and Daniel Burgess, are authorized and empowered to sue for, levy and receive the said Arrears, and other sums of money so due to the said late Farmers, and the said former Commissions granted by His Majesty to the said John Stone, Samuel Richardson, Richard Bucknall, Dr. Robert Wood, and Thomas Breedon, are thereby superseded and determined.

To the end therefore that all Persons who owe any debts, arrears or other sums of money to the said John Forth, and other the said late Farmers of His Majesties Revenue in this Kingdom, may know to whose hands the same ought to be paid. We have thought fit hereby to give this notice of the passing of the said Commission under the Great Seal of this Kingdom, to the said John Stone, Thomas Breedon, and Daniel Burgess, whereby they or any two of them, their Deputies, Agents, Substitutes and Officers are Impowered to Collect and receive such arrears, debts and other sums, as remain due to the said late Farmers. And we do hereby require all His Majesties Officers, Ministers and other loving Subjects, that to the said John Stone, Thomas Breedon, and Daniel Burgess, their Agents, Officers, Deputies, Collectors and Receivers in the due Execution of the said Commission, they be aiding and assisting as becometh.
